

Software Requirement Specification

by Group 3

Problem Statement

The failure and drop-out rates are high in degree programs. This is because of lack of proper planning for study, methods for understanding the concept need to be improved.

Functional Specification

- Get survey of students for their daily routine, study timings and planning by using a questionnaire.
- Get the academic performance of students.
- Analyze the behavior and academic performance of the student and suggest improvements for his/her studies.

External Interface Specification

- Web application to access the results.
- Database for storage of marks and survey.
- Http is used as communication protocol.

Technical Specification

- Any system which can support web browser.
- Server to host the web application

Thank You !